

In Custody for the 2008 Olympics

As part of its IR2008 Campaign, HRIC is calling for the release of all prisoners of conscience in China before the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. Below is a list of prisoners whose sentences indicate that they will still be in prison when the Olympic Games begin. The prisoners are arranged according to the general category of their offense, and then by date. For the most part, only prisoners with stated prison sentences have been included. An exception has been made for Catholic clerics, who are often detained for many years before being released. We hope this list will assist people and groups concerned with a particular type of prisoner to advocate on behalf of those prisoners in the run-up to the Olympics.

The list below is not complete, as it relies entirely on publicly available information. The Chinese government has never provided a list of prisoners in any category of crime.
